WINE ENTHUSIAST - OCTOBER 2010

Oak Grove 2009 Reserve Sauvignon Blanc (California): $8. Bone dry and ultra-crisp in acidity, with citrus and lemongrass flavors, this Sauvignon Blanc is very clean and invigorating. Better yet, the everyday price is right.

Oak Grove 2009 Reserve Pinot Grigio (California): $8. Absolutely dry and tingy in acidity, this citrus-flavored wine is clean and zesty. It's a fine appetizer sipper for cleansing the palate. Serve it with little munchies, like grilled veggies, goat cheese, and crackers with crab salad.
